

MONET

Claude Monet was born in Paris in 1840. While he was a boy growing up in LeHavre, a neighbor taught him to paint. When he grew up, he went to art school. He helped begin a style of painting called Impressionism. He painted with oil paints in the outdoors. He is most well known for his very large murals of Water Lilies.

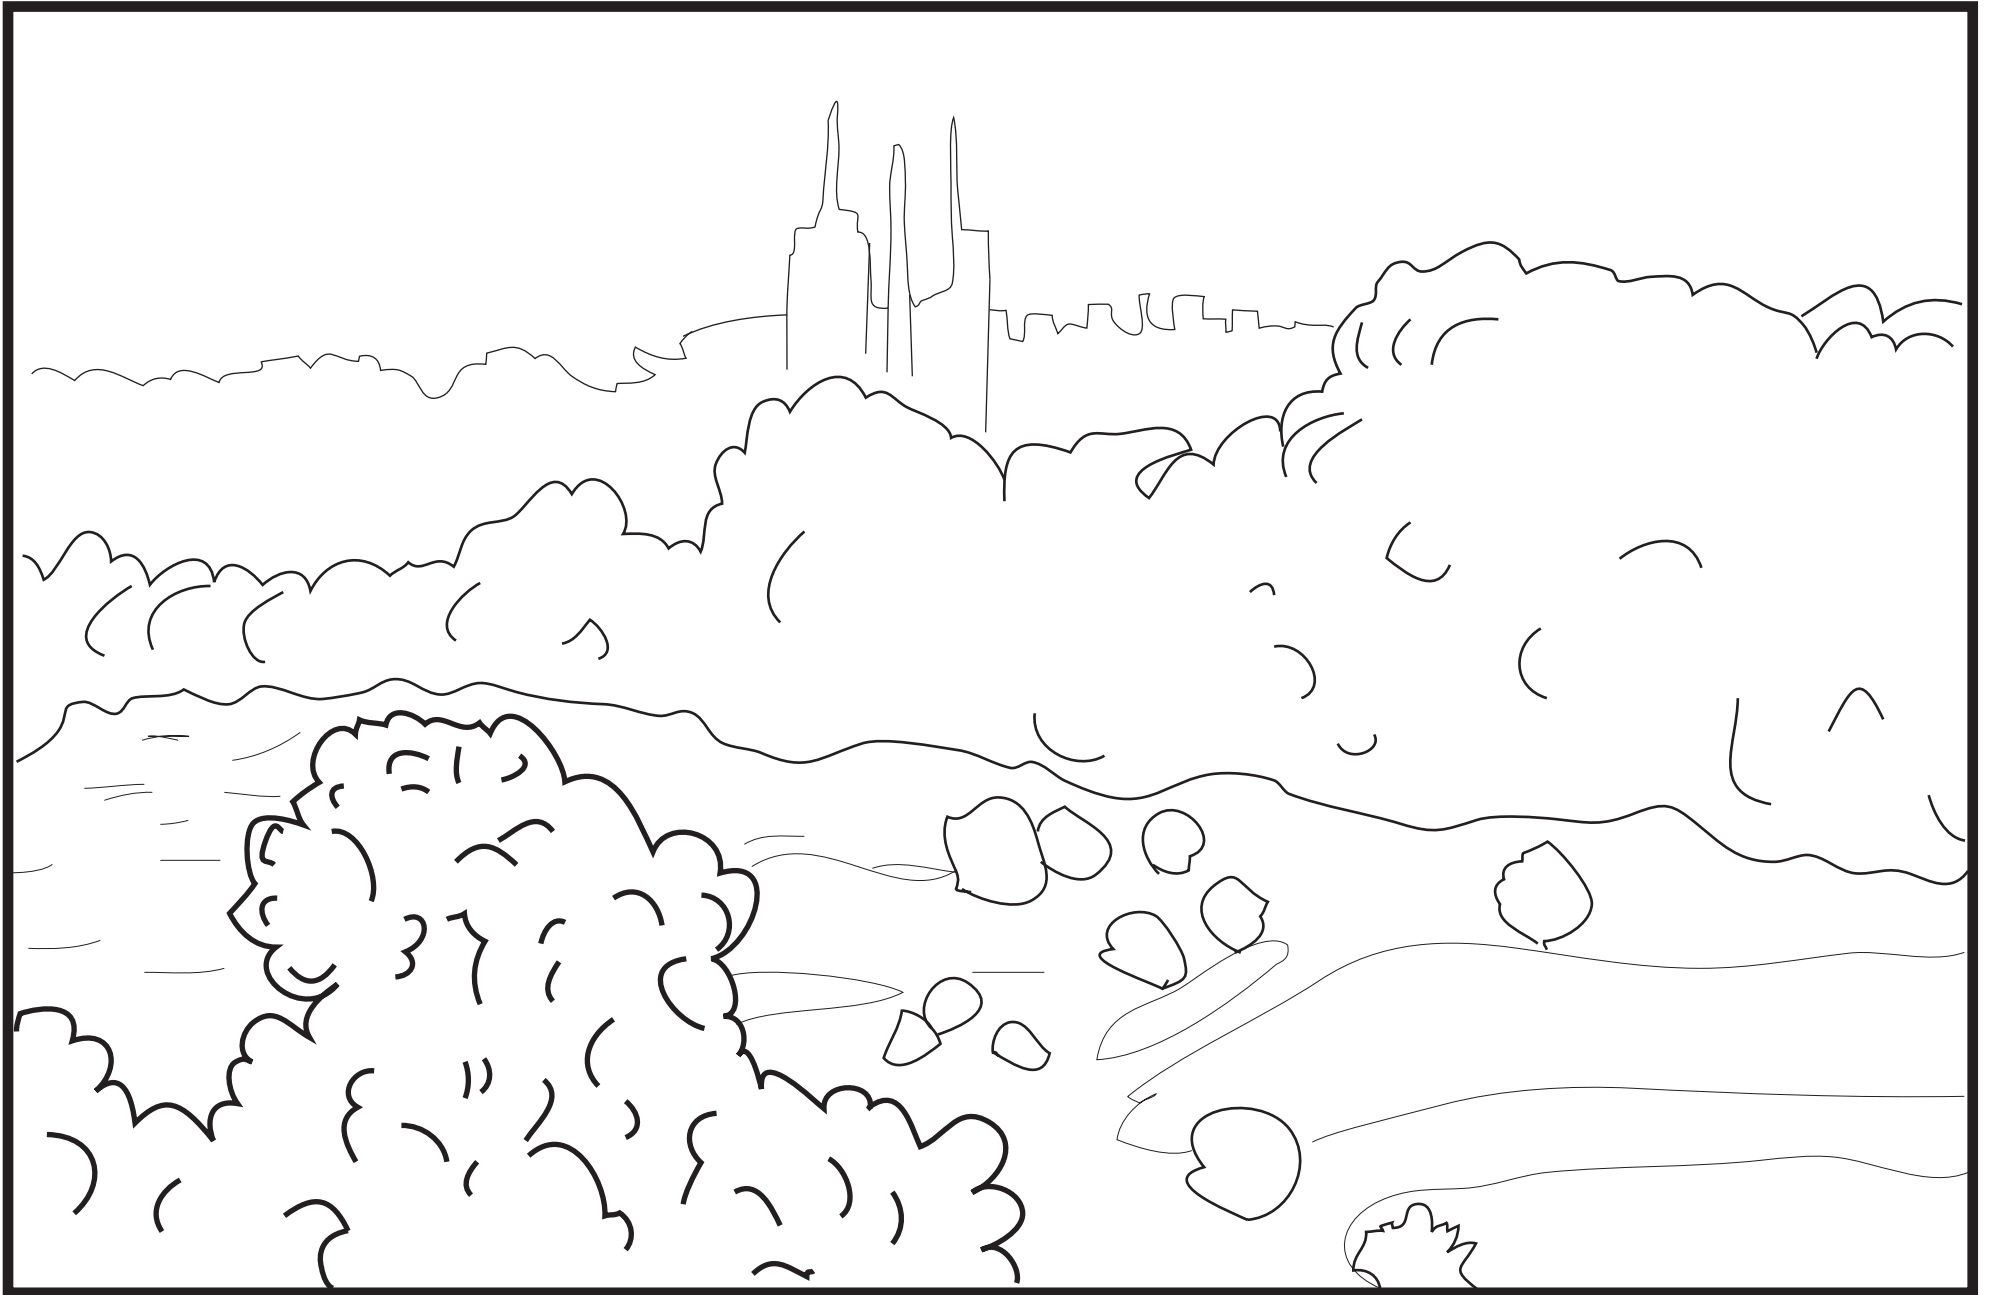

Monet

Woman with a Parasol

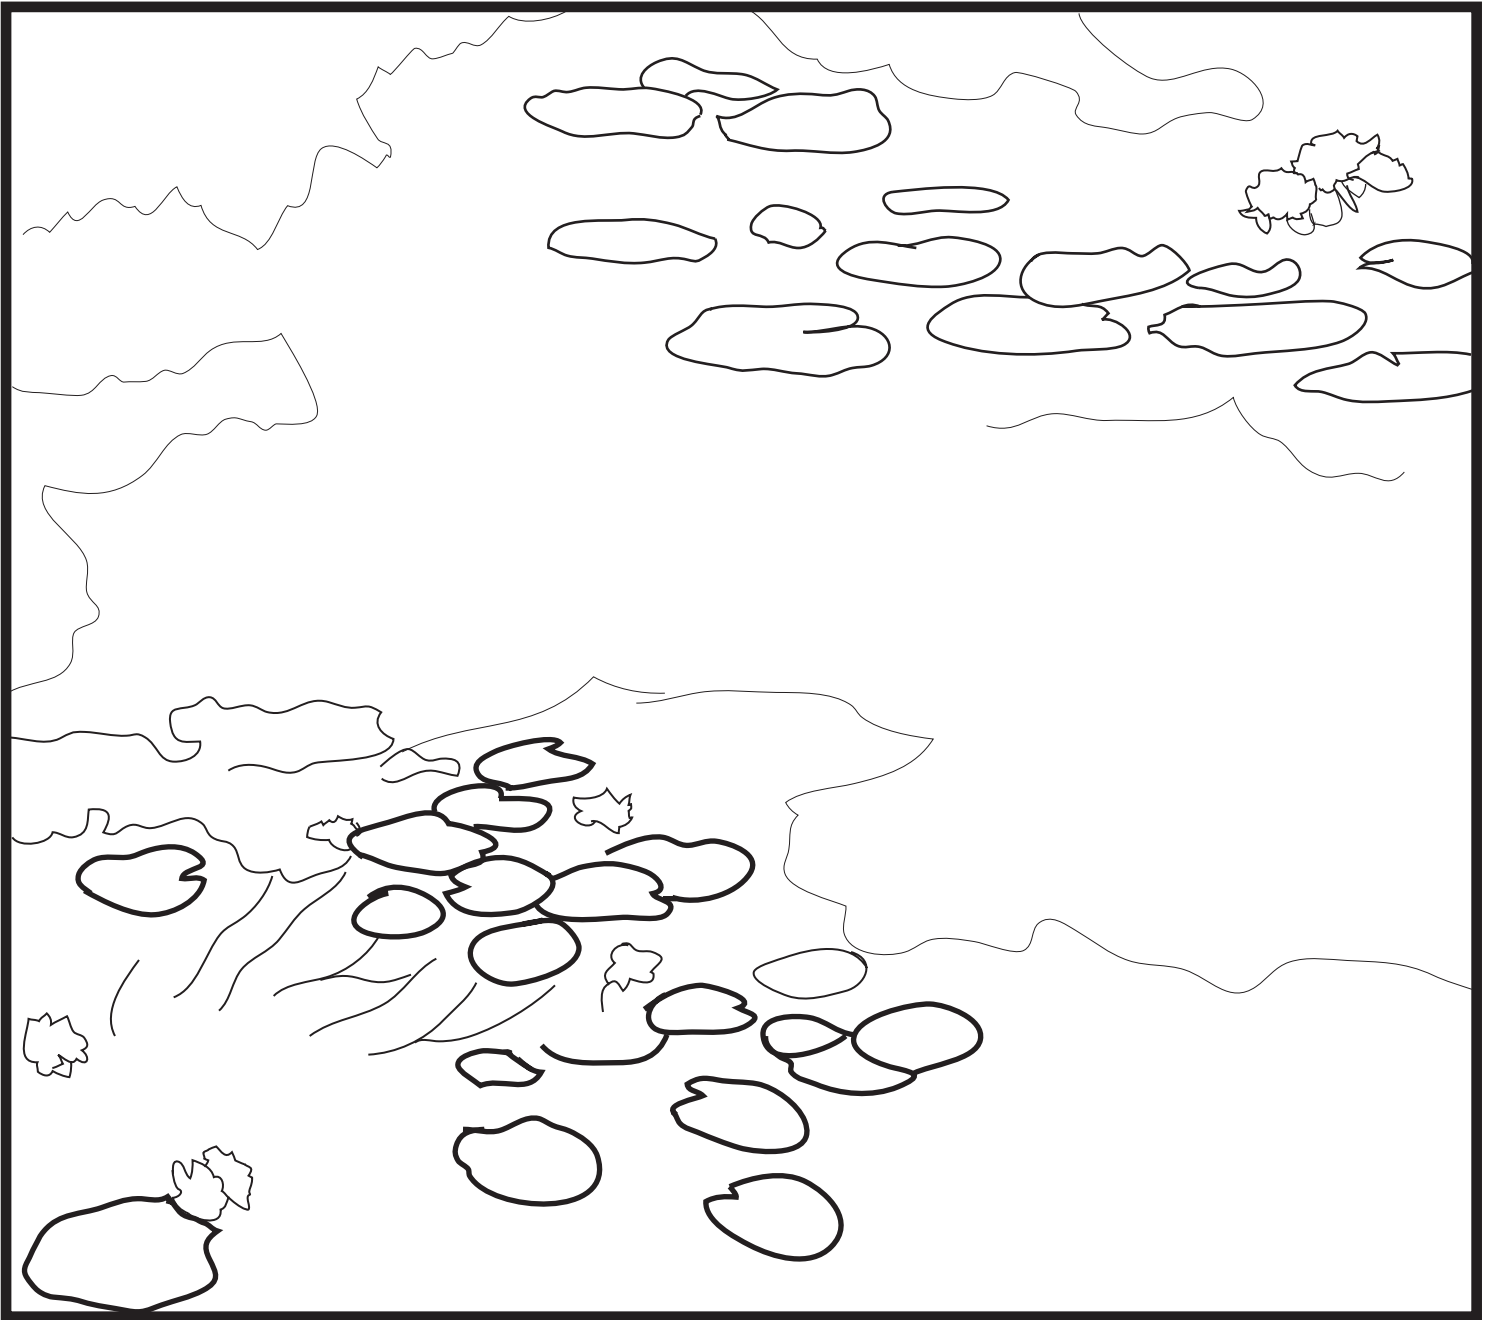

Monet

The Tuileries

Monet Waterlilies

Monet

Women in the Garden

